ABOUT US

Ranger Guard is a veteran owned and operated company which has been based in Texas for over 15 years. We prioritize hiring military and law enforcement veterans to get them back on the streets doing what they do best - protecting and serving.

Ranger Guard has grown from a small business in 2009 to a large company covering much of Texas and the Southwest. Founder David Catran is a former secret service agent and foreign ministry vice consul of security. He took his professional experience in the field to develop a security model that works to protect businesses and individuals in all environments and settings.
